

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We used to receive numerous calls during family dinner time. After the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law we hardly receive any calls which makes our family time more enjoyable.